IN THE CLAIMS:

Please amend claim 1 as follows:

1 (Twice Amended). A processing assembly for insertion into and removal from an arcuate channel defined between inner and outer walls which, in use, are rotated about a rotational axis to create a centrifugal field, the processing assembly comprising, an elongated processing container having a dimension measured about the rotational axis that is larger than a dimension measured along the rotational axis, the processing container also having flexibility and which, in use, occupies the arcuate channel to convey fluids within the arcuate channel in a circumferential path about the rotation axis for separation in the centrifugal field, and a carrier secured to the processing container shaped to maintain the processing container outside the arcuate channel in a rounded, flexed condition conforming to the arcuate channel, the carrier limiting deformation of the processing container during insertion into or removal from the arcuate channel.
